THE PREFACE.

Chriſtian READER,

THE Holy Scriptures are a Revelation from Heaven, a lively Impreſs of the Glories of the Divine Majeſty; authenticated by the moſt aſtoniſhing Miracles, the Accompliſhment of ancient Predictions, and by their Energy on the Hearts of Men; in illuminating, convincing and comforting them, in a Way ſuperior to all the Powers of Nature.

There is nothing relative to the Actions, Words or Thoughts of Men, but what falls under their Inſpection, Heb. iv. 12. nor any Thing reſpecting our Duty to God or Men, but what is included and inculcated in the ſacred Oracles.

To the real Believer in Chriſt, the Word is a joyful Sound, Pſal. lxxxix. 15.—Good News from a far Country, Prov. xxv. 25.—A Word in Seaſon, as Apples of Gold, in Pictures, or Baſkets, of Silver, Prov. xxv. 11.—and a Fountain of living refreſhing Streams to all who thirſt for the Conſolations of God. They are the ſubject Matter of Zion's Songs in the Houſe of their Pilgrimage: And in the Scriptures are held forth every Thing the Saint wiſhes for, or can deſire, to make him happy and bleſſed for ever.

1. They are his Storehouſe and Repoſitory of all Supplies. Herein Wiſdom hath mingled her Wine, and furniſhed her Table, Prov. ix. 2. If we want Wiſdom and Underſtanding, the Word is a Lamp to our Feet, and a Light to our Paths: The Entrance thereof into the Heart giveth Light; it giveth Underſtanding to the Simple, Pſal. cxix. 105, 130. and is able to make us wiſe to Salvation, through Faith which is in Chriſt Jeſus, 2 Tim. iii. 15. If we want Pardon to our guilty Souls, here is the Balm of Gilead: Herein the almighty Redeemer is held forth as a full Propitiation for our Sins, that whoſoever believeth in him ſhould not periſh, but have everlaſting Life, John iii. 14, 15, 16. ſhould receive Remiſſion of Sin, and its Removal from him, as far as the Eaſt is from the Weſt, Acts x. 43. Pſal. ciii. 12. Do we want Support, Help, Deliverance from Enemies and Evils without or within? Here is a Promiſe, that Strength ſhall be equal to our Day, Deut. xxxiii. 25. that the Grace of Jeſus Chriſt ſhall be ſufficient for us, 2 Cor. xii. 9. and that Chriſt will be with us, and a very preſent Help in Trouble, Iſa. xli. 10. Pſal. xlvi. 1.— Do we want Food for our Souls, the Bread of Life? Here it is promiſed, He ſhall feed his Flock like a Shepherd, Iſa. xl. 11. For the Lamb which is in the Midſt of the Throne ſhall feed them, and ſhall lead them unto living Fountains of Waters, Rev. vii. 17. And God will ſupply all our Need, according to his Riches in Glory by Chriſt Jeſus, Phil. iv. 19.

2. The Scriptures are the Believer's Muſeum, abounding with the greateſt Rarities and Curioſities to entertain and divert his Mind. The Narratives of Jacob, Joſeph, Moſes, Samſon, Samuel, David, Daniel, Paul, and other great Worthies recorded in Scripture, are incomparably entertaining and inſtructive, beyond any Thing to be found in human Compoſures. The divine Perfections ſhine brighter in the Word of God, than in all his Works of Creation, Pſal. cxxxviii. 2. The unprecedented March of Iſrael through the Red Sea, and the great River Jordan, at a Time when it overflowed all its Banks;—the Conqueſt of the Moabites and Midianites, by a Thouſand Men from each Tribe, without the Loſs of one ſingle Perſon;— the daily Deſcent of Manna from Heaven, for Forty Years, by which near Two Millions of Perſons were richly fed;— the Fall of the Walls of Jericho, at the Sound of Rams'-Horns;—Gideon's Conqueſt of a numerous Hoſt, with Three Hundred Men, having Lamps and Pitchers;— the ſtanding ſtill of the Sun in the Midſt of Heaven, at the Word of Joſhua;—the wonderous Atchievements of Samſon;— the Preſervation of the Three Worthies, in the Midſt of a fierce burning fiery Furnace, &c. are ſuch Inſtances of the amazing Power of God, and his Concern for, and Love to, his People, as may juſtly excite our Admiration and Praiſe, and encourage us to truſt and confide in a God of ſuch matchleſs Power, and unparallelled Goodneſs and Mercy, for all we need. Who can utter the mighty Acts of the Lord? Who can ſhew forth all his Praiſe?

He ſpake, the Sun obedient ſtood,
And held the falling Day:
Old Jordan backward drives his Flood,
And diſappoints the Sea.

Dr. Watts.

If we deſire to be delighted, inſtructed, made wiſe and intelligent, and enriched with Things noble, ſublime, and invigorating to the Heart, let us be inceſſantly converſant with the Bible.

Men's

Men's Books with Heaps of Chaff are ſtor'd;
God's Book doth golden Grains afford:
Then leave the Chaff, and ſpend thy Pains,
In gathering up the golden Grains.

3. The Word of God is the Believer's Sanctuary and Hiding-place in a ſtormy Day, as there is ſomething therein ſuited to every Circumſtance; and that can, under the Influence of the Holy Spirit, give Eaſe and Relief under all Situations and Conditions of Life.

4. The Word is compared to a Glaſs, through which all Objects may be viewed, both great and minute, both evil and good, of Time and Eternity, temporal and ſpiritual, 2 Cor. iii. 18. In this Glaſs, a Sinner may ſee his own Features and Likeneſs, what Spots are upon him, the Lineaments of his Soul, and its Qualities and Diſpoſitions; whether they are ſuch as reſemble the God of Love, Purity and Holineſs, or the fallen Spirit of Pride, Infidelity, Ignorance and Uncleanneſs. It is like a Perſpective Glaſs, through which diſtant Objects relating to Heaven and Hell, may be diſcerned; and it would be of ſignal Advantage to us, to make frequent Uſe of it in theſe Reſpects. It is as a Microſcopic Glaſs, wherein thoſe Sins which ſome think to be diminutive and ſmall, appear to be high Crimes, committed againſt an infinite God; for as there is no little God, conſequently no Sin committed againſt God can be little, though there are Degrees of Guilt attending ſinful Actions.

Nor does the Word only concern Chriſtians, that is, Believers in Chriſt, but it has alſo to do with the Ungodly and Prophane: It points out their State, remonſtrates againſt their Conduct, and invites them to liſten to its Dictates, and partake of its bleſſings, Prov. i. 22, 23. chap. ix. 5. It is a Word behind them, ſaying, This is the Way, walk ye in it.

Liſten, O Sinner, to the Voice,
And holy Angels will rejoice
To ſee a Soul redeem'd from Death,
And brought to live on Chriſt by Faith.

God abſolutely declares, and poſitively aſſerts in his Word, that Sinners muſt be converted, and have their Hearts changed and renewed by his Holy Spirit, or be finally miſerable; muſt repent of their Sins, and turn to God through Jeſus Chriſt, by a Faith of his Operation, or periſh in their Sins. Hence, he calls to Sinners, Turn ye, turn ye, why will ye die? Ezek. xxxiii. 11. It is the ſtanding righteous Law of Heaven, that you you muſt turn or die; and why will ye ſtand it out againſt God, to your own Ruin? Why will ye die? Perhaps ſome will ſay, "We cannot "turn ourſelves." May you then cry to God with Ephraim, Turn thou me, and I ſhall be turned, Jer. xxxi. 18. The Word ſays, Aſk, and ye ſhall receive, Matt. vii. 7. It is an Inſtance of amazing Condeſcenſion in God, that he will take any Notice of you, will reaſon with you, and lay the Caſe before you. He might have kept eternal Silence reſpecting you, and not afforded you ſuch Means of Inſtruction, nor a Revelation of theſe Things in his Word. When a Man has received ſome great Affront and Injury from another, he commonly ſeeks to be revenged, or paſſes by the Offender in ſullen Silence: If God had acted thus, we ſhould have been eternally ruined. But O the Kindneſs, the Compaſſion and Forbearance of a God, towards thoſe who have offered him the higheſt Affronts, and greateſt Indignities! and have ſaid in their Hearts and Actions, we have no Part in Jeſus Chriſt, nor Inheritance in the Son of God! And yet the Lord ſeeks to be gracious, and hath explicitly made known in his Word the Way of Eſcape, Peace and Safety.

Some will allow the Neceſſity of Repentance to the carnally prophane, but imagine it needleſs to the morally honeſt. O Sirs! this is a dangerous and ruinous Sentiment, invented by Satan to quiet the Conſcience, and lull it to ſleep in carnal Security. Our Lord urged the Neceſſity of being born again unto Nicodemus, a Maſter in Iſrael, John iii. 3, 7. and aſſures us, that except our Righteouſneſs ſhall exceed that of the Scribes and Phariſees, we ſhall in no Caſe enter the Kingdom of Heaven, Matt. v. 20. Every Man by Nature has a ſinful corrupted Heart, which alienates him from God, and attaches him to Things worldly and ſinful, Rom. viii. 7. and without a new Heart and Nature, he can never love God, nor enjoy a Union of Heart to him. Search the Scriptures, and pray to God for an Underſtanding of them, that you may eſcape every pernicious Snare and Evil, and be led to place your Hopes and Happineſs in Jeſus Chriſt, and his precious Word. You have the Means afforded of knowing the Word of God; and of all Books which have been wrote by Men, in order to enlighten and inſtruct the Mind in the Knowledge of the Scriptures, there are none more calculated to this End than a good Concordance and Dictionary of the Bible. The Conſideration hereof encouraged me to begin and go through this laborious Work; and I have uſed my utmoſt Endeavour, to make it as full and complete as I could, in ſo ſmall a Volume.

Having had many Years Experience of the Utility and Advantage of ſuch a Work, I have often wiſhed that the Uſe hereof might be more general, general, and that every Family, eſpecially every godly Family, might have a Concordance and Dictionary, as well as the Bible in their Houſes: And obſerving, that all the ſmall Ones which have been publiſhed, are ſo very deficient, as generally to diſappoint the Inquirer after a Scripture Text; and the larger Ones too expenſive to be obtained by many Families; and if obtained, yet do not give the Senſe of Scripture Words, which are many of them needful to be known; I had therefore an Inclination to write a Concordance and Dictionary, in One Octavo Volume, chiefly containing what is needful in Cruden's Concordance, and Wilſon's Chriſtian Dictionary; which are two of the completeſt Books of the Kind that I have ſeen. The one is a large Quarto, and the other a Folio Volume.

No Perſon before hath wrote a Book upon my Plan. Mr. Cruden has indeed judiciouſly given the different Acceptations of many Words, and has inſerted a Table of proper Names at the End of his Concordance; but it is deficient, many Words being left out: Notwithſtanding, it is a Book of great Merit, which I have made more Uſe of than any other, in compiling the Concordance Part of mine.

In order to contract this Volume into a narrow Compaſs, ſo as to make it portable to thoſe who travel, and more convenient for common Uſe, I have,

1. Inſerted in the ſame Line with the leading Word ſought for, either its Signification, or a Scripture-Citation, by which I have ſaved many Thouſand Lines.

2. I have inſerted two Quotations in one Line, when it could be conveniently done, which has much contracted the Work.

3. I have left out the Concordance of many little Words, which are ſeldom looked for to find a Text by, as it may be found under other Words; ſuch as if, is, it, that, thee, them, then, was, we, &c. Though, for the Sake of thoſe who make it their Buſineſs to ſtudy the Bible, and wiſh to know the different Senſes in which a Word is uſed, I have inſerted many Words, which might otherwiſe have been left out.

In this Work I have not given the Hiſtory of the Lives and Characters of eminent Perſons recorded in Scripture, becauſe their Hiſtory is already given, and their Characters drawn by the Pen of Inſpiration; to which little can be added but Conjecture and Uncertainty; and my Deſign was only to include what I judged moſt needful.

The

The PREFACE.

The Signification of Words I have carefully tranſcribed from eminent Writers, of known Skill in the learned Languages; chiefly from Wilſon's Chriſtian Dictionary, the Authors of which have been very indefatigable in ſearching out the Etymology of Scripture Words.

In this Edition I have inſerted a Concordance of proper Names, and alſo many Scripture Words, which were left out in the firſt Edition. If any Scripture Word is omitted, it has eſcaped my Notice.

After all, it ought to be conſidered that a Man's Hand is in it, and a feeble one too, from which nothing perfect can be expected. I have done what I could, and believe the Lord has favoured me with his Direction and Aſſiſtance herein; which if he condeſcends to crown with his Bleſſing, for the Benefit of thoſe who love his Word, to him will belong all the Glory.

And now, Chriſtian Reader, I commend thee to God, and to the Word of his Grace, which is able to build thee up, and to give thee an Inheritance among all them which are ſanctified. Which that it may be thy Happineſs to Experience, is the ſincere Deſire of thy unworthy Servant in the Goſpel of CHRIST,

J. B.

Thoſe Perſons who are unacquainted with the Nature of Concordances, may obſerve the following Directions.

1. THAT the Word looked for, is only inſerted at full Length at the Head of the Claſs; in every following Line, the firſt Letter is put for the Word, as A. is put for AARON, c. for COMMAND, &c. and if there are two Words at the Head of the Claſs, a ſhort Ellipſis or blank Line is put before, or after the initial Letter, for the Word; as for ABODE there, is put a. -, or there ABODE, - a.

2. Where two diſtinct Quotations are in one Line, they are by this Mark (‖) divided: but thoſe Texts which follow a Quotation, and where the above Mark is not inſerted, are to be conſidered as ſynonimous or parallel Paſſages. This Mark (|) is to ſeparate one Chapter and Verſe from another.

3. The marginal Reading, which is of conſiderable Uſe, is diſtinguiſhed by an Obeliſk (†).

4. The Parts of Speech are in general marked, except in the firſt Half Sheet, ſ. for Subſtantive, v. for Verb, a. for Adjective, p. for Participle, ad. for Adverb, c. for Conjunction, pr. for Prepoſition, and i. for Interjection. As proper Names are all Subſtantives, they are not marked.

BABYLON, Confuſion, or mixture. The capital of Chaldea. "A famous city, built four-ſquare, 60 miles in circumference, 15 on each ſide. The walls were 87 feet thick, and 350 high, on which were built 316 towers, or, according to others, 250; three between each gate, and ſeven at each corner. The gates were 100, 25 on each ſide, and all of them of ſolid braſs. From theſe ran 25 ſtreets, croſſing one another at right angles, each 150 feet wide, and 15 miles in length. A row of houſes faced the wall on every ſide, with a ſtreet of 200 feet wide between them and it. Thus the whole city was divided into 676 ſquares, each of which was 4 furlongs and a half on every ſide. All around theſe ſquares ſtood the houſes fronting the ſtreets, and the empty ſpace within ſerved for gardens and other needful uſes."

EAGLE, ſ. Is a bird of prey, the king of birds, frequently mentioned in ſcripture. It is declared unclean, Lev. 11. 13. as are all other birds of its ſpecies; as the ſea-eagle, and the eagle called Oſſifrage, becauſe it breaks the bones in order to extract the marrow. The hawk and vulture may alſo be reckoned as different ſpecies of eagles.

It is of great courage, ſo as to ſet on harts and great beaſts. And has no leſs ſubtilty in taking them; for having filled its wings with ſand and duſt, it ſtitteth on their horns, and by its wings ſhaketh it in their eyes, whereby they become an eaſy prey. It flieth very high, Prov. 30. 19. yet in the twinkling of an eye ſeizeth on its prey, whether on the earth, or in the ſea. It buildeth its neſt very high in the tops of rocks, Job 39. 27. It goeth forth to prey about noon, when men are gone home out of the fields.

It hath a little eye, but a very quick ſight, and diſcerns its prey afar off, and beholds the ſun with open eyes. Such of her young as through weakneſs of ſight cannot behold the ſun, it rejects as unnatural. It liveth long, nor dyeth of age or ſickneſs (ſay ſome) but of hunger; for by age its bill grows ſo hooked that it cannot feed. It preys not on ſmall birds, but on geeſe, hares, harts, ſerpents, and dead carcaſes. It is ſaid, that it preſerves its neſt from poiſon, by having therein a precious ſtone, name Aetites, (without which it is thought the eagle cannot lay her eggs; and which ſome uſe to prevent abortion, and help delivery in women, by tying it above or below the navel) and keepeth it clean by the frequent uſe of the herb Maidenhair. Unleſs it be very hungry, it devoureth not the whole prey, but leaveth part of it for other birds, which follow it. Its feathers or quills are ſaid to conſume other quills that lie near them. Between the eagle and dragon there is conſtant enmity, the eagle ſeeking to kill it, and the dragon breaks all the eagle's eggs it can find, and hearing the noiſe of the eagle in the air, ſpeedeth to his den, and there hides himſelf. To provoke its young ones to fly, it flutters over them, and takes them on its wings, Deut. 32. 11. Iſa. 40. 31. and if they attempt not to fly, it beats them with its bill, and gives them no food. Being exceeding hot and dry, it ſoon waxeth angry, nor keepeth, but ſhuns ſociety with others. Some eagles prey in the air, ſome in the ſea, wherein they can from on high perceive the ſmalleſt fiſh; and ſome on the land. The eagle moulters and loſes its feathers yearly, at which ſeaſons it is very feeble, ſo as neither to hunt its prey, nor create terror in other birds as uſual; but ſoon renews its native vigour again, Pſal. 103. 5.

FOX, ES, ſ. A well known crafty animal, called in Hebrew, Shual, in Greek, Alopex. Wilſon relates many things of the fox: As that it lays its dung in the entrance of the badgers den, by which means it obtains it for its own uſe. It frights the wolves, its great enemies, from their dens, by laying the herb ſea-onion at the mouth of them. It digs holes for itſelf, but then leaves ſeveral outlets, that if the huntſman lays his ſnares at one, it may eſcape at another. When ſick, it eats the gum of pine-trees, whereby it is not only cured, but its days lengthened. When purſued by hunters, it makes urine on its tail, and ſtrikes it on the dogs faces. Some having been taken in a gin by the leg, have bit it off, and ſo eſcaped; others have feigned themſelves dead, till taken out, and then have run away. When hungry, they appear as if dead, on whom the fowls lighting for prey, they ſnatch and devour them. Many other things are ſaid of their cunning.
